

About the National Safety Council:

The National Safety Council saves lives by preventing injuries and deaths at work, in homes and communities, and on the roads through leadership, research, education and advocacy. Visit us at nsc.org for up-to-date industry news, information and tools to take your safety program to the next level.

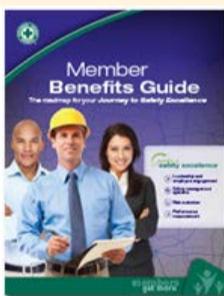

NSC Safety Awards

Participation in the NSC Awards Program is the safe decision for your employees and the smart decision for your bottom line.

Safety awards from NSC instill employee pride; earn respect from your customers, community and peers; and place you one step ahead of your competition. Learn more.

Learn about all the benefits available to you in our new Member Benefits Guide

Welcome to Spotlight on Safety, an e-newsletter brought to you by the Department of the Interior Office of Occupational Safety and Health in partnership with the National Safety Council. We hope you will find this service of value. Send feedback or ideas on topics you would like to see to membershipinfo@nsc.org. Please put "Department of the Interior feedback" in the subject line.

Emergency preparedness

September is National Preparedness Month. Across the United States, workplaces and communities will promote emergency preparedness. The National Safety Council supports these emergency preparedness efforts and encourages all Americans to take action.

You can join the effort by following four steps:

1. Build a kit
2. Make a plan
3. Stay informed
4. Get involved

Please click here to learn more about each step involved and other resources available to you.

5 Minute Safety Talk: Family safety planning

An emergency preparedness plan is your family's guide to safety. Learn about potential threats that could occur in your area and discuss with each member of your family what they should do. Remember, you and your family may not be together when there is an emergency, and therefore you must prepare for a variety of situations.

Read the 5-Minute Safety Talk to learn more on what you and your family should do in an emergency.
